LOCAL STUDENT(S) RECEIVE UNIVERSITY DEGREE

By Elizabeth Tollefson on Friday, February 17, 2006

The Office of the Registrar at the University of Minnesota, Crookston (UMC) recently announced its list of fall 2005 graduates. Seventy-nine (79) students completed their degree requirements during fall semester 2005. Graduates are listed below with their hometown and degree(s) earned.

UMC enrolls approximately 1,200 full-time students and is accredited by the North Central Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools. UMC is a four-year baccalaureate granting institution and a coordinate campus of the University of Minnesota. The college offers both bachelor of science (BS) and associate in applied science (AAS) degrees.

UMC is internationally known as the original "Laptop University." A laptop computer is provided to every full-time student, and the campus provides Internet access virtually everywhere. U.S. News and World Report has recognized the unique technology-based learning environment at UMC, ranking it a "Best College" for the past eight consecutive years, and The Wall Street Journal has called UMC "the College of the Future--Today."
